Featured Website

Travlers Guide to the History of Biology and Medicine

A few years back when our client started this website, I had no idea it would be such a hit. VERY interesting reading about the history of medicine by country.

Check the United States under Massachusetts and the "operations prior to anesthesia". Ouch!

Web Tech Services will provide this space for their website

You can create them yourselves for only $15 per month. Keeping in contact with your current customers is crucial. Click the link at the bottom to sign up or contact me.

Since this e-newsletter is new, all customers are added. You may unsubscribe at the bottom and thank you for your patience and support.

Polling Place

I encourage everyone to take our poll regarding the economy. I am curious and our poll will share the results with you.

I am always blaming the media for making things worse than they really are, however, that might not be the case here.

Desktop Computer Tips

I know you are all tired of me lecturing about back ups and viruses. This time, I will give you a few tips for organizing your data. Desktop, folders and files, like anything else in your life, need reorganized once in a while.

Start by keeping ALL files and documents in your My Documents directory. Make folders within this directory. This way all your important files are in one spot.

Want to rename all files in a directory? For example, maybe you took many pictures on July 4th. You can open the folder and name all the pictures July4(1), July4(2) Well something similar can be achieved like this :

Using Windows XP, select all the files in a folder (Ctrl+A), then right click on any file and select rename. Rename the file. All other files selected will be automatically renamed to (2), (3), etc ..

Group commonly used icons together in desktop. The trick is to place the most used group in the center of the desktop. I call mine "shortcuts" which takes me to my letter folder, proposal folder, remote desktop, and other computer's shared docs.

Now, when you back up, just drag your My Documents folder to your external drive. :-)

Cool Tool

Have you ever wondered who is linking to your website? Google can provide that information. Simply go to Google.com and type in link:www.yourdomain.com for example, my company is link:www.webtechservices.com

It's pretty cool.
